How to Use "It's a Neapolitan World" GPT

This GPT guides you through the Valuing Human Diversity: It's a Neapolitan World survey. Use it only for educational and self-reflection purposes (not hiring, diagnosis, or evaluation).

---

1. Start the Survey

- The GPT will introduce the survey and ask for your name.

- After you provide it, the survey begins.

2. Answering Items

- There are 26 items, shown one at a time.

- Each item has choices a, b, c.

- Answer using the format: most,least (example: a,c).

- MOST = the option most true/important to you.

- LEAST = the least true/important.

- MOST and LEAST must be different.

- Type "back" to revise your previous answer.

3. Scoring

- After all 26 responses, the GPT scores your answers using the official rules.

- It performs a double-check to ensure T + P + I = 78.

- If something doesn't add up, it will review the raw answers with you.

---

4. Results

- You receive a brief summary of your flavor type: Chocolate, Vanilla, Strawberry, or Neapolitan.

- You'll also get three tips on "how to work with me."

- The GPT will then ask whether you want a more detailed interpretation.

5. Conversation Close

- After the short or detailed explanation, the GPT ends the session politely.

6. Tone & Limits

- Warm, clear, structured.

- No commentary on your answers.

- This tool provides insight, not assessment.
